

Expert Sources on Legal Matters in Pharma

Business and Bankruptcy Litigation

George Apostolides advises a wide range of clients, from Fortune 500 companies to small businesses and individuals on litigation avoidance, prosecuting claims for damages, and defending cases filed against the clients. He also has handled numerous appeals and has argued before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. George is a partner at Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr.

Compliance / Internal Investigations

Dave Resnicoff is a former federal prosecutor who investigated allegations of misconduct by health care companies, government fraud and other federal crimes. Dave has extensive experience in the pharmaceutical, medical device, hospital supply and hospice industries, and his practice focuses on matters involving the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, U.S. health care fraud and abuse regulation, and False Claims Act litigation. Dave guides companies on how to respond when the government is making inquiries through civil and criminal investigative demands and subpoenas, and he defends against civil and criminal government enforcement actions. Dave is a partner at Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila.

Personal Injury

Dan Kotin handles personal injury and wrongful death cases in the areas of transportation, product liability, medical malpractice and construction. He has successfully secured many record-setting or noteworthy settlements and jury verdicts for his clients. Daniel is a founding partner at Tomasik Kotin Kasserman.

Page 2 Communications is a boutique PR agency serving law firm leaders, marketers and attorneys. Clients featured on this list are skilled at providing clear analysis and commentary for a business and general media audience. To speak with one of these expert sources, please email us: info@page2comm.com

Intellectual Property

Bradley Crawford has more than 15 years' experience in the pharmaceutical industry, as a bench chemist, an inventor, a law clerk, and a registered patent attorney. As a result, Brad fully understands all aspects of generating, obtaining and protecting intellectual property. He has drafted patent applications; handled U.S. and foreign patent prosecution; and drafted infringement, freedom to operate, and non-infringement opinions in areas such as pharmaceuticals and industrial chemistry. He has also worked on several ANDA cases. Bradley is a shareholder at Polsinelli.

Robert Green counsels both brand and generic pharmaceutical companies on patent litigation. He also advises clients on issues relating to the FDA and the pharma industry and has argued numerous pharmaceutical patent appeals before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Robert is a founding partner at Green Griffith & Borg-Breen.

Gary Hood focuses his national practice in pharmaceutical/Hatch-Waxman patent litigation, trade secrets litigation and copyright litigation. He counsels a wide range of clients across many industries. Gary chairs the Intellectual Property division and leads the Hatch-Waxman and biosimilars practice at Polsinelli.

Jeff Ward advises pharmaceutical companies, API manufacturers, biotech firms, and chemical and manufacturing companies on litigation and opinion matters. He has litigated patent and trade secret disputes relating to the pharmaceutical, chemical and mechanical arts in various federal courts throughout the U.S. and the International Trade Commission, including as lead counsel in a number of jury trials. Jeff is a partner at Green Griffith & Borg-Breen.